Letter No. EB/359/2020, dated: 25-08-2020

To
The Principals of Constituent and Affiliated Colleges
JNTUH

Dear Sir/Madam,

Sub: JNTUH-Exam Branch- No credit-based detentions during the AY 2020-21-
Clarifications– Reg.
Ref: DE office letter No. EB/806/2020 dated 04-06-2020.

In compliance with the directions of AICTE/TSCHE, all the students who are detained due to shortage of credits in the academic year 2019-20 or in the previous academic years are promoted to study next year of his/her course. The same information was already communicated to all the Principals (point 4 in ref. cited above).

Accordingly if any student, who was detained due to shortage of credits, approaches your college, such students may be given re-admission. You are also informed to identify all such students who were detained due to shortage of credits in any of the previous academic years and intimate about their promotion, so that such students will be benefitted.

Further the students who have not registered for the semester exams are also eligible for promotion.

It is proposed to conduct the IV semester MBA examinations along with IV-II semester B.Tech. / B.Pharm. examinations from 16-09-2020. The exam centers preferences given by the MBA students shall also be considered for the allotment of exam centers.

The service for the registration of semester exams (with applicable late fee) for final semester BTech / BPharm / MBA University exams shall be made available from 31-08-2020.

Your cooperation is highly solicited.

Thanking you

Yours Sincerely,

Sd/-
