DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

Session Topic: Business Opportunities Ethical Hacking

1. Objective of the Program : To bring the awareness in students about cyber threats and hacks, how to be secured from them and the opportunities for cybersecurity workers in today's world.

2. Benefits /Outcome of the Program:

Understood the steps to be taken in order to secure our data .(Mobile security)

Tools : Wireshark and Ettercap working (To hack) Known what is phishing, sniffing, Trojan , Active track.

3. Description:

Connectivity through the Internet has yielded businesses everywhere tremendous productivity and profitability opportunities. The hitch in this otherwise welcome world is great vulnerability to cyberattacks. The same electronic avenue that makes business more profitable and life so convenient and easy also enables those who would disrupt and frequently steal. Since this evil has grown along with this otherwise marvelous structure, spending on cybersecurity has skyrocketed, bringing many legitimate business opportunities with it.
