Learning:

With the upcoming trend of start-ups and individual businesses it has become the need for the hour to know about intellectual property rights. Many colleges like ours have started investing in Startups and idea incubation centers. This helped students and faculties alike to know and apply for patents and rights. It also created awareness on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and how to be apply patents for your ideas and designs. It also focused on World Intellectual Property Organization-its roles and functions. It also emphasises on various outlets the students can apply so as to get rights for their designs and ideas. It gave a step procedure to file a patent application, copyright application, trademark application and design application. The talk was ended by highlighting various schemes that facilitates start-ups intellectual property
