

1. In 2024, Singaraju Siva Kotes had the privilege of visiting Draper House, Gachibowli, Hyderabad, a globally connected startup ecosystem founded by visionary investor Tim Draper.
2. During the visit, Singaraju Siva Kotes actively engaged with multiple investors, founders, and early-stage entrepreneurs from diverse domains. Singaraju Siva Kotes had the valuable opportunity to pitch his startup idea, receive constructive feedback, and participate in meaningful discussions focused on scalability, sustainability, and long-term impact.
3. One of the most enriching aspects of the experience was participating in early-stage startup huddles, where founders presented their ideas, discussed strategic challenges, refined business models, and explored growth strategies. These sessions covered funding approaches, product-market fit, execution frameworks, team building, and investor readiness.
4. The exposure to real-time entrepreneurial conversations and high-impact networking significantly strengthened Singaraju Siva Kotes's strategic vision, pitching confidence, and global outlook toward building scalable and sustainable ventures.

5. This visit stands as a valuable milestone in the entrepreneurial journey of Singaraju Siva Kotesh, reinforcing leadership perspective and commitment toward innovation-driven enterprise development.