Date of the event held - 1st November, 2025

Organizer - Luminos Club

Venue - Auditorium, CMR Technical Campus

Number of Students Participated (Students and Staff) - 950

Description about the event -

The SoulSync Spiritual Event was conducted exclusively for first-year students to promote peace, mindfulness, and spiritual awareness. A guest speaker from ISKCON guided participants through meditation and mindfulness practices, helping them connect with their inner selves. Students actively interacted with the speaker, creating an engaging and serene atmosphere.

Outcome of the event - The session was a great success, creating a calm and reflective atmosphere where students experienced deep relaxation and mental clarity. Many participants approached the guest speaker to discuss their personal concerns and seek spiritual guidance, showing their genuine interest and active engagement.
