Description of the Event : On 10-10-2025, NSS volunteers from the CSM Department organized a school visit at Girmapur, where they conducted interactive teaching sessions along with engaging sports activities for the students. The program aimed to promote academic learning, teamwork, and physical fitness, encouraging students to maintain a balance between studies and co-curricular development. Children participated enthusiastically, displaying energy, discipline, and creativity throughout the activities. The visit created a joyful and supportive learning environment that fostered motivation and holistic growth among the students.

This initiative aligns with SDG 3, SDG 4, and SDG 5.
