

1. The Society Outreach Award by CSI – Hyderabad Chapter is a recognition given to individuals or student branches for their outstanding contributions toward social welfare through technology and community service.
2. It honors initiatives that positively impact society, such as digital literacy programs, awareness campaigns, and community development projects.
3. The award highlights the importance of using technical knowledge and leadership skills to create meaningful social change.
4. Singaraju Siva Kotesk achieved this prestigious award in recognition of his remarkable efforts and dedication toward societal development.