Expenditure:5600/-

Activity Category: Self Driven

Expert/Speakers Details:

Name: Macherla Prudhvi Raj

Designation: Senior SDE & Educator

Organization: Kleza Solutions, Hi-Tech City

Speaker Profile link: <https://in.linkedin.com/in/prudhvi-raj-macherla>

Brief about Expert/Speakers:

Speaker: Mr. Prudhvi Raj is a Passionate Software Engineer with 3+ years of Experience in Software Development and technical training. He has helped over 1000+ students across AP & TS, in master Web development, Aptitude & DSA for interview and helped 100+ students get into product-based tech companies.

Objective of the activity:

The Industry Expert Micro-Mentoring Session Powered by AI was conducted to provide focused and personalized guidance to participants through short, structured interactions with industry professionals. The session leveraged AI-enabled tools to assess individual interests and skill gaps, enabling experts to offer targeted advice on career pathways, industry expectations, and skill development. Participants actively engaged in the mentoring process and benefited from real-time insights, enhancing their career awareness and readiness for future opportunities.

Outcome of the activity:

The Industry Expert Micro-Mentoring Session powered by AI provided participants with valuable insights into current industry practices, emerging technologies, and career pathways. The session successfully bridged the gap between academic learning and real-world industry expectations through expert guidance and AI-enabled mentoring support.

Students gained:

- Enhanced understanding of industry trends and the role of AI in modern professional environments.
- Personalized career guidance through micro-mentoring interactions, helping learners identify skill gaps and growth opportunities.
- Improved problem-solving and decision-making skills, supported by AI-driven insights and expert experience.
- Exposure to practical applications of AI in industry workflows, innovation, and productivity enhancement.
- Increased confidence and motivation to align academic knowledge with industry-relevant skills.

Overall, the activity empowered participants with actionable knowledge, industry readiness, and a future-focused mindset, making it a meaningful step toward professional development and employability.
